

gulf of Salonika, in Macedonia. It has a deep and safe roadstead.

Scutari—Albanian town near Montenegrin frontier. Population 20,000. Not the Scutari on the Bosphorus, associated with the name of Florence Nightingale.

Sofia—Capital of Bulgaria, on an elevated plain. Population 67,920.

Tuzi—Turkish village on Montenegrin frontier, near Podgoritza.

Uskub—A hundred miles to the north of Salonika. Population 20,000; near the Balkan range.

Varna—Bulgarian town on western shore of Black sea; an important fortified town under the Turks. Population 35,000.

Volo—Principal seaport of Thessaly; seat of a Greek metropolitan.

Yanina—In Southern Albania near Greek frontier. Population 25,000. A busy industrial town.

WISE FOR HIS YEARS

Tommy had been promoted by the druggist. He was now allowed to work behind the counter.

One morning a middle-aged lady, looking full age, came in.

"Have you got any cream for restoring the complexion?" she asked bashfully.

Tommy was a wise lad. He eyed her too-vivid cheeks with open admiration.

"Pardon me, madam," he said politely. "Don't you mean cream for preserving the complexion?"

And the delighted lady bought six boxes right away.

WISCONSIN LEADER

Capt. Joseph Hoeffel.

Wisconsin looks like first choice for the football championship of the western college conference on the form displayed in early games. Captain Hoeffel, left end, is playing his third season on the eleven. He played football for three years on the Green Bay, Wis., high school eleven before attending the university.